

Privacy Statement

Data Protection Act

Stichting Happy Watoto, Tanzanian homes & schools (in short Stichting Happy Watoto), processes the personal information you provide in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act.

Objectives of data collection

Your personal data are processed by Stichting Happy Watoto when you register to become an ambassador or donor or for purposes of the acceptance and settlement of other forms of patronage, to execute agreements, including purchasing agreements, to carry out marketing activities as well as to enable us to meet legal obligations.

Objection to the use of your personal data

You can inform us that you do not wish to allow your personal details to be used for marketing activities. You will not then be contacted by Friends of Tanzania for marketing purposes.

Right to access and correct personal data

You can contact the secretary's office to check whether the data we have registered are correct. If the details are not correct, we will correct them. We may ask you to provide identification.

Technical security

We have taken appropriate measures to make our systems secure. All persons who can access your data on behalf of Friends of Tanzania are obligated to observe the confidentiality of that information.

Cookies

If you visit our website to obtain information or to register for one of our activities or our newsletter, certain data will be collected and analyzed, such as the frequency of visits to the website, type of browser, IP address, the pages visited, previous websites visited, and the length of the user session. This data is used to improve the functioning of various internet pages, and to adapt the website to user preferences. Stichting Happy Watoto collects no personal information via its website other than the information that you yourself have made available. This is done by means of cookies, which are small invisible text files sent to your internet browser. If you object to the use of cookies, you can have them blocked by your internet browser.

Changes to the privacy statement

Stichting Happy Watoto can change the text of this privacy statement at any time without prior notice. Changes come into effect as from the moment they are published on the website.
